CREDITORS TO ASK BANKRUPTCY FOR EGG CO-OP

General creditors of the Adams County Cooperative Egg association Friday afternoon voted to bring involuntary bankruptcy proceedings against the local cooperative.

Meeting at the office of Attorney Eugene Hartman, approximately one-third of the 44 general and open account creditors of the cooperative voted that "there is nothing left to do but bring bankruptcy proceedings," a spokesman said.

The petition to federal court asking that the cooperative be declared bankrupt will be presented either at Harrisburg or Scranton by Attorney Edwin Buchen, of Hanover, representing four of the creditors, with the agreement of the remainder present at the meeting.

$50,000 Owed To 44

Such a petition needs to be brought by only three creditors, but it was decided to put the names of four on the petition.

The 44 general creditors, including egg dealers, paper companies, crate companies and others, are owed about $50,000 by the cooperative. In previous meetings of the creditors with the cooperative officials, it was estimated that possibly less than ten cents on the dollar will be paid out under bankruptcy proceedings.

Decision to bring the bankruptcy action came after the creditors were informed by representatives of the board of directors of the cooperative that attempts to reorganize have failed, and that "it is impossible at this time to effect a reorganization," a representative of the creditors said.

The creditors previously asked the directors if they wished to make a voluntary declaration of bankruptcy for the organization. The directors declined.

One of the creditors said after the meeting Friday: "This is the only thing we could do, unless we just want to let the plant remain there. At least the creditors will get something back, even if it is only a statement of bad debt for their income tax."

CONRAD NAGEL STARS SUNDAY WGCT PROGRAM

Conrad Nagel will star as "Gregory Winslow" in the "Proudly We Hall" production over radio station WGCT at 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Sunday's story will be "The Trial of Gregory Winslow," in which Nagel will play the part of a brilliant attorney who has never lost a case and suddenly finds himself on trial for a grievous offense.

The Ave Maria Hour, carried by WGCT Sunday evening from 6:30 to 7 o'clock, will present the story of "Father Paul of Graymoor." The program has broadcast the lives of the saints, founders of religious orders and noted lay Catholics, but this is the first time that it has produced the story of its own founder, and first father general of the Society of the Atonement at Garrison, N. Y.

Father Paul is well known for his many charitable enterprises through the "Union-That-Nothing-Be-Lost." He is also known through the chair of Unity Octave, now being observed, which he inaugurated in 1908, and his work at St. Christopher's inn at Graymoor, a shelter for wayfarers.

The following groups will present programs on "The Woman's Voice" on WGCT next week: Monday, Gettysburg area, PTA; Tuesday, YWCA; Wednesday, Public Assistance board; Thursday, Adams County Welfare; Friday, Gettysburg Girl Scouts. "The Woman's Voice" is heard every weekday at 10:30 o'clock.

ON AIR NEXT WEEK

Announcement was made today of the names of the county pastors who will conduct the morning devotional programs on WGCT next week. The list follows: Monday, Rev. Harry E. Krone, Evangelical United Brethren, Gardners; Wednesday, Rev. Harry S. Ecker, Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian; Thursday, Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, Arendtsville Reformed; Friday, Rev. Charles E. Held, Mt. Joy Lutheran; and Saturday, Rev. Oscar Peeman, Grace Lutheran, Two Taverns. No minister was listed for Tuesday.

Two Emmitsburg Restaurants Closed

Two Emmitsburg restaurants were closed Thursday afternoon by the Health department for violations of the sanitary code.

Business ceased at 5 p.m. at Wagerman's restaurant in Emmitsburg, and at Ohler's tavern, near Emmitsburg.

Announcing the closing order, Dr. H. Forbes Burgess, Frederick county health officer, said that both establishments had a long history of violations of the provisions of the Frederick county sanitary law and that both had been given official notice of improvements to be made. More than 30 days have passed since the last "clean-up" order was served and neither place has made changes necessary to bring it up to acceptable standards, he said.

Vigorous enforcement of sanitary regulations is a Health department policy, Dr. Burgess said, and other restaurant closures will follow unless owners take immediate steps to bring them up to standards.

COUNTY COUPLE TO BE MARRIED THIS AFTERNOON

Miss Patricia Anne Shealer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Shealer, 100 Chambersburg street, will become the bride of Thomas H. McCarthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. McCarthy, Arendtsville, at the Trinity Evangelical Reformed church, Gettysburg, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the presence of the immediate family and friends. The Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, pastor, will perform the ceremony before an altar decorated with mixed flowers, fern and candlelight.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her oldest brother, Earl D. Shealer, will wear an ivory faille frock of street-length design, high neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and fitted bodice. Her shoulder-length ivory veil will be attached to a braided head piece of the same shade. She will wear matching mitts and ivory satin slippers and will carry an ivory colored Bible, a gift of the groom, topped with an orchid.

Maid of Honor
The maid of honor, Miss Jean Harner, Wayne, Pa., will be attired in a pale blue silk street-length gown highlighted with black velvet. Her mitts, slippers and headpiece will also be in pale blue and she will carry a Colonial bouquet of (Please Turn to Page 8)

'Youth On The March' Program Here Jan. 25

PERCY CRAWFORD

The Adams County Youth for Christ will sponsor a "Youth on the March" program in the Hotel Gettysburg annex Friday night, January 25, at 8 o'clock.

Rev. and Mrs. Percy Crawford and a quartet will take part in the program. They are heard and seen each Sunday coast to coast on ABC-TV at 11 p.m., channel six, and at 10:30 from other stations.

Rev. Crawford is founder and president of King's college, and also conducts a young people's and children's camp each year at Pinebrook.

ADMEN GIVEN WARM WELCOME AT 28TH SESSION

Members of the Interstate Advertising Managers' association opened their 28th annual meeting, and the fourth held in Gettysburg with a dinner at 6:15 o'clock Friday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg. Twenty-seven members, their ladies and guests attended the affair. All of the sessions of the association are being held at the hotel, concluding with a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock today.

Lindsey E. Bierer, advertising manager of the Herald-Union, Uniontown, Pa., president of the association, was the toastmaster. Association members were welcomed to Gettysburg by Burgess William G. Weaver and N. A. Meligakes, president of the Chamber of Commerce. The latter were introduced by Carl A. Baum, manager, The Gettysburg Times. The invocation was given by Karl A. Hoffman, Shamokin News Dispatch, a past president of the association.

"One of the greatest remunerations of my office as burgess is the privilege of meeting with a group such as this, and welcoming you to Gettysburg," Burgess Weaver said.

Official Welcome
Pointing to a background of advertising experience from the "customer end," Burgess Weaver said his father had come to Gettysburg 1885 and established a dry goods store here. He advertised in the Star and Sentinel, and later, after The Gettysburg Times was founded, was a daily advertiser in this newspaper, Mr. Weaver said.

"My father was a firm believer in newspaper advertising, and you couldn't sell him any other kind," the burgess said. "Later, I became associated with my father in the store, which became known as G. W. Weaver and Son. With that background, I especially welcome you advertising men to Gettysburg, one of the best known small towns in the United States."

"I am very happy to be here to bring you the greetings of the citizens of Gettysburg and the members of the Chamber of Commerce," Mr. Meligakes said. "It is a privilege to welcome you to Gettysburg. I sincerely hope that you will have a successful business meeting and that you will also enjoy our town and the hospitality which we extend to you."

Evening Session
Mr. Baum also introduced members of The Gettysburg Times staff present at the dinner, Paul L. Roy, Mahlon P. Hartzell, Jr., Carleton H. Poole, William C. Harbaugh, Mrs. Genevieve R. Raffensperger and Miss Mary Jane Svarnas.

The advertising men held an evening session in the hotel dining room following the banquet, with President Bierer in charge. The program outline was given by David Knipe, advertising manager of the Globe Times, Bethlehem. Joseph Coupe, advertising manager of the Asbury Park Press, was in charge of a question bee, and a round table discussion was led by George Lessig, advertising manager of the Pottstown Mercury.

Cards were provided for the ladies during the business session, with Mrs. Marion Harbaugh as hostess, and a get-together was held after adjournment of the business meeting in the dining room.

Luncheon Meeting
Today's session opened with a business meeting at 9 o'clock, followed by a tour over the battlefield at 10 o'clock. Another business session was held preceding the closing luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

Luncheon speakers included Charles B. Bender, president of the Gettysburg Retail Merchants' association, Carl A. Baum, The Gettysburg Times, and an address by Professor Norman V. Van Guilder, advertising department, school of journalism, University of West Virginia, Morgantown, W. Va., on "News-paper Copy that Sells."

Members present at the dinner were:

A. M. Bass, publisher, Times-Journal, Vineland, N. J.; Carl Baum, The Gettysburg Times; Lindsey E. Bierer, president of the association, Herald-Standard, Uniontown; Joseph J. Coupe, Asbury Park Press, Asbury Park, N. J.; L. H. Cross, Record, Stroudsburg; George S. Fitzroy, Julius Mathews agency, Philadelphia.

Vote Contributions At WCTU Meeting

Contributions to the Community Chest, the Lord's Day Alliance, the Lillian Stevens fund and the Frances Willard fund were voted by the Gettysburg unit of the Women's Christian Temperance union at a meeting Friday at the home of the secretary, Miss Carrie Musselman, Baltimore street. Devotions were conducted by Miss Musselman.

The group made plans for their annual treat to the guests at the county home and adjourned to meet in February at the home of Mrs. Milton R. Remmel.

Picturesque Setting For Gitt's Mill Covered Bridge

One of the prettiest settings for a covered bridge is that at Gitt's mill, on the Conewago, slightly more than a mile outside New Oxford. The old mill near the bridge, an old mill race and a saw mill opposite, and two nicely kept old stone homes near the mill give it a distinctly rural atmosphere. A picture of other years is easily conjured, with the big horse-drawn wagons bringing their grain to the mill. The bridge is a 90-foot, five-inch span built in 1866 by J. M. Pitten-turf, who erected several of the covered bridges in this and adjacent counties. Its original cost was $1,449, according to old records. Except for small windows on either side in the center of the bridge, the sides are closed. The Conewago at this point marks the line between Oxford and Mt. Pleasant townships.

The bridge is County Bridge No. 53 on the map published January 1 in The Gettysburg Times. It can be reached from Gettysburg by driving east on the Lincoln highway to New Oxford, then taking the New Chester road, Legislative Route No. 01094, to the left from the square, and driving north about a mile. The first road then to the left leads to the bridge.

TO HOLD CHERRY PIE CONTEST IN COUNTY FEB. 4

Cherry pie time has started for some 400 high school girls throughout seven counties. The cherry pie baking will end February 9 with the crowning of Pennsylvania's Cherry Pie queen at Carlisle.

Thomas Oyley, Gettysburg R. 3, announced today that plans have been completed for the sixth annual pie baking contest sponsored by the Pennsylvania Cherry Growers association, which he heads as president.

Dr. A. Pauline Sanders, head of home economics for the state Department of Public Instruction, heads the committee of home economics supervisors who have the annual chore of setting up the contest in the participating counties.

The seven cherry growing counties to hold contests are Adams, York, Perry, Cumberland, Erie, Crawford and Dauphin.

Each high school in these counties is scheduled to hold its own contest to determine its champion. Many of the schools have already begun training and elimination events which will lead to the final naming of the school "cherry pie queen" prior to the county events.

York county will name its queen first on February 2, when the school queens throughout the county will gather at North York high school at 10 a.m. for the baking contest that will name the county winner.

Adams county's events will be held February 4; Perry, February 5; and Cumberland, February 6. Dates for the county contests in Erie, Crawford and Dauphin counties have not as yet been determined.

The state champion, to be determined at Carlisle high school, will enter in the national contest against winners from 12 states.

Korean Airlift Plane With 43 Aboard Dives Into Sea Today

Seattle, Jan. 19 (P)—A Korean airlift plane carrying 43 military passengers home from the Far East crashed into the sea early today three-fourths of a mile from an airport in the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Besides the soldiers, the plane carried a crew of three.

Several small boats were dispatched to the scene and one reported it had brought seven survivors to shore.

An hour later there still was no report of any rescue of additional survivors.

The Coast Guard in Seattle said the plane floated for a time but that it later sank, leaving only one wing and the tail section in sight.

There were no direct telephone connections with the airport and all information on the crash was coming from radio reports to Seattle officials.

The crash occurred at Sandspit Airport, 480 miles north of Seattle. Two planes were dispatched to the scene, one a Coast Guard plane from Anne Island, 110 miles to the north, the other an RCAF Lancaster with droppable lifeboat from Patricia Bay, 400 miles to the south.

Northwest Airlines, which was operating the four-engined DC-4, said all personnel aboard were outfitted with self-inflating life vests. It said the aircraft also carried two 20-man life rafts and one 10-man raft.

Overheated Stove Damages Church

Fire from an overheated stove damaged a large section of the floor and carpeting in Mt. Olivet Reformed church, Bermudian, Friday afternoon, and also caused considerable damage to the ceiling above the stove.

It was discovered at 1 o'clock, and the East Berlin fire company was called. The church is located about four miles north of East Berlin.

The church had recently placed a new carpet in the church at a cost of $600. Rev. Alton M. Leister, East Berlin, is pastor of the church.

4-H BABY BEEVES FROM ADAMS ARE SOLD ON FRIDAY

A lightweight Angus steer owned by Larry Walton, Hanover R. 4, youngest Adams county 4-H club member to show in the state Farm show's Baby Beef division, won the highest placing of any of the five Adams county 4-H beeves entered in the competition.

The ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walton, Hanover R. 4, won 11th place with his entry in the lightweight class. All five of the Adams county entries placed in the final judging.

Patrick Murren, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Murren, Hanover R. 4, won thirteenth place in the heavyweight class. The entry of Kenneth Appler, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Appler, Gettysburg R. 5, took sixteenth place in that division.

Edward Reichart, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reichart, Littlestown R. 2, won seventeenth place in the light heavyweight classification.

BLOOD DONOR APPOINTMENTS ARE MAILED

Cards are in the mail today for 210 Adams countyans asking them to report next Friday to Christ Lutheran church here to donate blood for use by the armed forces.

The 210 includes 90 employees of the C. H. Musselman company, 31 from Duffy-Mott corporation, ten from Knouse foods and 40 members of the American Legion and VFW posts. The remainder are persons who have volunteered either through other organizations or as individuals.

Radford H. Lippy, chairman of the Red Cross Blood Donor committee which arranges for the monthly "donor days," asked that those who are unable to be present next Friday notify him, or the county Red Cross office, as soon as they received their notice to report.

Time Off With Pay
Only in that way can the total number be kept at 100, the goal for the day. Persons who simply fail to appear throw the whole program out of gear by making it impossible to contact other potential donors in time for them to give blood, Lippy said.

Need Many Volunteers

The blood donor unit which comes here from Baltimore is equipped to handle 150 donations during the day, and to have less results in an irreplaceable loss, he said. Because a number of potential donors are turned down for colds or other reasons the number reporting must be (Continued on Page 2)

MRS. R. F. COLE DIES OF STROKE

Mrs. Blanche Anna Cole, 59, widow of Raymond F. Cole, died at her home in Butler township, near Biglerville, Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock following an illness of several days from the effects of a stroke.

Mrs. Cole was born in Adams county and was a daughter of Mrs. Sarah (Shoemaker) Baker of Buchanan Valley and the late Samuel Baker. Her husband died October 11, 1951. Mrs. Cole was a member of St. Francis Xavier Catholic church.

Surviving are these children: Mrs. Anna Mae Sponseller, Hanover; Mrs. John Myers, Hanover R. D.; Robert, Aspers R. 1; Mrs. Roy L. Weidner, Gardners; Clyde, Gettysburg R. 3; John and Lawrence, at home; 11 grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Maurice McFatridge, Philadelphia; Mrs. Leo Diehl, Cashtown, and Miss Myrtle Baker, Orrtanna R. D.

Funeral services Tuesday meeting at the Bender funeral home at 8:15 a.m. with a requiem mass at 9 o'clock in St. Francis Xavier Catholic church with the rector, the Rev. Fr. Anthony Kane, officiating. Interment in St. Ignatius Catholic cemetery, Buchanan Valley.

Friends may call at the Bender funeral home Monday evening after 7 o'clock. The rosary will be read at the funeral home Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Reds Again Accuse Allies Of Bombing Restricted Areas In Violation Of Joint Agreement

Seoul, Korea, Jan. 19 (P)—Communist jets and groundfire blasted 10 Allied warplanes out of North Korean skies in the past seven days, the U.S. Fifth Air Force announced today.

The announcement came as F-86 Sabre jets bagged one Communist MIG-15 and damaged another in a brief duel over northwest Korea. Credit for the kill went to Lt. Ivan C. Kincheloe, Cassapolis, Mich. Lt. Charles Rhinehart of Brooklyn, La., claimed one MIG damaged.

The battle pitted 18 Sabres against elements of a 90-plane Communist jet formation.

Snow flurries fell along the quiet 145-mile battlefield and heavy clouds hampered Allied air strikes. U.N. pilots pounded Red rail in 160 sorties flown by noon.

Other Losses

The weekly Fifth Air Force summary said two Sabre jets were lost between January 12 and 18 in aerial battles with the MIGs. Eight other planes were shot down by Red ground fire. Communist losses for the same period were three destroyed and seven damaged in air battles.

In the preceding week Red groundfire destroyed 13 Allied planes and MIGs accounted for three more. The Reds lost 12 MIGs destroyed and 14 damaged.

Temperatures fell to as low as three below zero Saturday.

Two Allied raiding parties wrested two objectives from western front Reds early Saturday but later withdrew to Allied lines. The action was west-northwest of Korangpo.

Committees Named By Photographers

A nominating committee and a committee to make arrangements for the annual banquet in March were appointed by President Paul G. Pensinger at the January meeting of the Gettysburg Photographic society Friday evening at the home of Maurice Stoops.

The members of the nominating committee are Dr. Frederick Tilberg, David Garfinkle and Mr. Stoops. The banquet committee includes Edward Stine, Philip Tyson and Joseph D. Kandlehart.

It was announced that the executive board of the society will meet Sunday to complete plans for the photographic school to be conducted here.

A print entered by Philip Tyson, Biglerville, was voted best in the monthly display in which 20 prints were displayed by 11 members. Second place went to a picture by Dr. Francis C. Mason; third, Edward Stine; fourth, LaVerne Dietz, and fifth, Mr. Stoops and Mr. Kandlehart. One guest attended the meeting.

LIONS TO HEAR RAIL OFFICIAL

General William C. Purnell, vice president and general counsel for the Western Maryland Railway company, will be the speaker for the weekly dinner meeting of the Gettysburg Lions club Monday evening at 6 o'clock at the Shetter House. His subject will be "View-points of the Railroad Industry in 1952."

General Purnell commanded the 175th Infantry regiment of the 29th Division in World War II in its march across France until he was wounded near Julich, Germany. He resumed command after his recovery and returned home with his division in January, 1946. On June 6, 1947, he was promoted to brigadier general in the Maryland National Guard, which command he holds today.

He is a graduate of St. John's college, Annapolis, Md., and of Harvard law school. He served as assistant attorney general in Maryland before entering the law department of the Western Maryland in 1931 as assistant general attorney. He was made general attorney in 1934 and became vice president and general counsel of the railway company on November 18, 1948.

The weekly Lions club news letter announces that the ladies' night which had been planned for Monday, February 11, has been postponed until February 12 at the Reformed church.

PAYS SPEEDING FINE

Lawrence J. Doran, Cooperstown, N. Y., arrested Friday by state police of the Gettysburg substation on a speeding charge, paid a fine of $10 and costs to Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

LICENSED TO WED

Allen P. Davis, Emmitsburg, and Dorothy M. Dewees, Thurmont, have secured a marriage license in Frederick.

Munsan, Korea, Jan. 19 (P)—The Communists charged today that four American jet planes bombed and strafed a plainly marked armistice convoy on the highway between Kaesong and Pyongyang yesterday afternoon, in violation of a joint agreement.

It was the fourth time this week the Reds have injected an "incident" into the deadlocked Panmunjom truce talks.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme U.N. commander, flew back to Tokyo after secret conferences with truce negotiators. There was speculation that he delivered new instructions which might get the armistice talks rolling again.

Staff Officers To Meet

The Communists agreed in principle Saturday to a meeting of staff officers to draft safeguards for prisoner of war camps.

The U.N. command asked for such a meeting after the Reds charged that U.N. planes bombed a prison camp near Kangdong Monday, killing 20 Allied prisoners and injuring others.

The U.N. acknowledged that planes were bombing the Kangdong area Monday night and accused the Reds of failing to pinpoint the location of their prison camps.

The Communists also charged that U.N. planes flew over northeast China Sunday and bombed the Kaesong protected area Tuesday.

In the latest incident, the Reds said U.N. jets attacked two trucks and a jeep on the Kaesong-Pyongyang highway about 20 miles north of Wesong.

Two men allegedly were injured

Reds Won't Help
Marine Col. James C. Murray, United Nations liaison officer, called the Communist charge a "routine grave protest." He said he did not know whether there would be an investigation.

The subcommittees working on truce supervision and prisoner exchange made no progress Saturday. Both agreed to meet again at 11 a.m. Sunday (9 p.m. EST Saturday) in Panmunjom.

The Communists turned down a U.N. request to relay packages as well as letters to U.N. soldiers in Red prison camps. Rear Adm. R. E. Libby said they cited "technical difficulties."

EGGS AT LOWEST LEVEL IN WEEKS AT MART TODAY

Egg prices, lowest in many weeks on the Farmers market, were as low as 50 cents a dozen this morning, but most farmers were asking 55 cents a dozen for large whites and browns, and some got 60 cents a dozen. Mediums were 40 and 45 cents a dozen.

Apples brought 25 cents a quarter peck, 40 cents a half peck and from $2 to $2.50 a bushel. Potatoes were 75 cents a peck and $3 a bushel. Some turnips and parsnips were offered for sale this morning at 20 cents a box.

Dressed chickens were 60 cents a pound and butter 70 and 75 cents a pound.

Pork prices were unchanged with loins selling at $1 a pound; sausage, 65 cents a pound; liver, 50 cents a pound; side meat, 50 cents a pound; backbone, 55 cents a pound; ribs, 55 cents a pound; neck roast, 55 cents a pound; shoulder roast, 65 cents a pound; ham roast, 75 cents a pound; scrapple, 30 cents a pound, and scudding, 60 cents a pound.

Mince meat was 60 cents a quart, apple butter, 50 cents a jar, and apple snip 25 cents a quart. A pint; potato salad at 25 cents a pint; cottage cheese, 20 cents a pint; bread, 20 cents a loaf; rolls, 20 cents a dozen; pies, 40 and 50 cents each; cookies, 25 and 30 cents a dozen, and cakes, $1 and $1.25.

COUNTIANS TO GET REFUNDS

A number of Adams countyans are among the 11,400 persons listed by the Philadelphia office of the Internal Revenue collector who have refunds due them. They date back to 1948 and include the following:

M'GRATH SEEKS "CLEANUP" MAN FOR BIG TASK

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—Attorney General McGrath shopped around today outside the government for a man to direct his projected cleanup of corruption in the federal machinery.

He said the selection would be on merit and "without any partisan consideration" and that the man named would have "broad and unfettered authority" to ferret out misconduct among government officials.

McGrath said "several prominent lawyers" are being considered and that the appointee will be chosen without regard to his political affiliation.

The post will be that of special assistant to McGrath to supervise and coordinate the cleanup program. It was ordered by President Truman in the face of charges that personal and political considerations figure in administration policy.

Could Use Wide Powers
McGrath called on the 93 U. S. district attorneys in the United States and its possessions to make a very much broader use of the citizen grand jury in pursuing inquiries into cases of "alleged official misconduct, fraud and bribery."

He said the "juries" wide investigative powers should be used in the preliminary stages of such cases, rather than after a long-drawn-out space-work by the prosecutor's staff alone.

The attorney general emphasized that his suggestion was prompted by a desire "to eliminate unfounded criticism that complaints are being disposed of on the basis of personal and political judgments."

President Truman ordered McGrath, as the nation's chief law enforcement officer, to do the cleanup job after a House committee's investigation into alleged influence in the handling of income tax fraud cases, a wave of dismissals of Internal Revenue Bureau employees, and the presidential firing of Assistant Attorney General T. Lamar Caudle for "outside activities" while supervising tax prosecutions.

BLOOD DONOR

Left at 190 to allow for the rejections.

Lippy said he had been notified by Duffy-Mott that they will give the day off with pay for the 31 members of their organization giving blood, and they have all been scheduled for the morning. The Musselman plant will close at noon and the 90 donors from there will be paid for the afternoon. The Musselman employees are schedule for afternoon donations.

Lippy said, however, that if the February 28 donation day is to be held, a much larger number of volunteer donors will be needed. The January 25 call will practically exhaust the list of volunteer donors gathered so far.

4-H BABY BEEVES

of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weaver, Gettysburg R. 4, won eighteenth place in the medium-weight class. All showed Angus steers. Weaver also won ninth place in a 4-H tractor driving contest. The contest was held for the first time this year at the Farm show.

The Adams county steers were sold slightly under the average price of 44.57 cents per pound for the auction held following the judging of the animals. The five steers from the county weighed a total of 5,700 pounds, and sold for $3,273.57, or a 42.5 cents per pound average. The listed sale prices include: Larry Walton, 980 pounds, $421.40; Roy Weaver, Jr., 1,030 pounds, $448.05; Kenneth Appler, 1,310 pounds, $537.10; Patrick Murren, 1,265, $524.97; Edward Reichart, 1,115, $490.60.

Wedding

Riggs-Poljak
Miss Catalina Poljak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adres Poljak, Bogota, Columbia, became the bride of Cpl. Charles J. Riggs, Company A, 33rd Infantry, Fort Kobé, Canal Zone, Panama, and son of Mrs. Helen Riggs, 605 Main street, McSherrytown, and the late George H. Riggs, Sr., at a high mass in the Coco Solo chapel, Canal Zone. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward L. Pralino, chaplain, on December 8.

Coatesville, Pa., Jan. 19 (AP)—Peter Wasco, 53, Coatesville, was killed last night while crossing the Lincoln highway, outside Coatesville.

Police arrested Norman Goldstein, 47, New York city, on involuntary manslaughter charge. He was freed in $1,000 bail pending a coroner's hearing Tuesday.

LIBRARY BOARD AT N. O. ELECTS

The New Oxford Library board met Thursday evening in the library room, New Oxford, with Rev. George E. Sheffer, chairman, in charge. Those present in addition to Chairman Sheffer were Mrs. George E. Sheffer, librarian; Miss Mae Gilbert, librarian; Mrs. William D. Himes, Sr., Mrs. J. E. C. Miller, and Rev. A. C. Rohrbaugh, Mrs. Mary S. Wilson of the Gettysburg Library was a visitor invited to address the meeting.

The treasurer reported expenditures since the last meeting amounting to $20.95 for a new book case, leaving a balance of $21.53.

The librarians reported the number of books circulated in September, 235; October, 281; November, 297, and December, 225. The registration of new patrons during the same period was: September, 6; October, 7; November, 1; and December, 1, giving a present total of 473.

It was voted to request the town council to again include in the budget for this year the sum of $300.

Officers for the year were elected as follows: Rev. George E. Sheffer, chairman; Rev. A. C. Rohrbaugh, vice chairman; C. P. Keefer, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. George E. Sheffer and Miss Mae Gilbert, librarians.

It was reported by the chairman that the new book case which had been ordered was installed and in use.

The board was addressed by Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, county librarian, on "Library Work and Its Problems." She pointed out that circulation figures for the New Oxford library are by far the highest for the county libraries, due to the rather large number of books owned by the library with less dependence on the bookmobile than in other areas.

Problems discussed include retrieving over-due books, increasing circulation, especially in the area of children's books, and some problems attending the purchase of books for library use.

The meeting adjourned until the third Thursday in March. It was announced that library hours are Wednesday from 7 to 9 and Thursday from 3 to 5.

ZOO'S GLUTTONS COSTLY TO FEED

New York, Jan. 19 (AP)—A glutton of a walrus and a gourmet of a platypus can run up quite a grocery bill these days.

City budget officials found that out yesterday by asking the man responsible for feeding the 2,500 animals at the Bronx zoo.

Fairfield Osborn, president of the New York Zoological society, told a budget hearing that during the next year it will cost $34,000 to keep the animals in hay, fish, horsemeat and other zoo menu delicacies.

He had to discuss the animals' eating habits, too, because their appetites are $9,300 more expensive than they were last year. Osborn gave these recipes of the zoo's blueprints: Mackerel by the buckets is Herbert the Walrus' idea of a square meal. Herbert, eight-month-old import from a Danish zoo, only weighs 300 pounds now and may reach 3,000 pounds at full adulthood.

When Herbert arrived last October, he weighed only 250 pounds. But now he's gaining every day, and so is his appetite. As of yesterday, he wolfed down 22 pounds of the fish.

As for the zoo's platypus couple, they have a craving for Louisiana crawfish, garnished with Bronx-home-grown worms. That runs into $3,000 a year. That's why the zoo makes them pay their own way. It costs five cents extra to see these rare, aquatic mammals from Australia. Their buck-like bill and feet with dense, dark brown fur makes them the zoo's prima donnas.

WHAT FREEDOM BRINGS

FREEDOM, AS WE HAVE COME TO KNOW IT IN AMERICA, BRINGS INDEPENDENCE OF MIND AND SPIRIT, SECURITY FROM OPPRESSION, THE OPPORTUNITY TO LIVE WHERE WE CHOOSE AND WORK WHERE WE WILL.

MATERIALLY, FREEDOM BRINGS GREATER REWARDS FOR INDIVIDUAL ENDEAVOR THAN ANY REGIMED SYSTEM HAS EVER BEEN ABLE TO PROVIDE. THIS MEANS HIGHER LIVING STANDARDS FOR ALL OF US.

AND FREEDOM BRINGS WITH IT THE OBLIGATION TO MAINTAIN OUR DEMOCRACY AS A FORCE FOR SPIRITUAL ACHIEVEMENT AND MATERIAL ACCOMPLISHMENT.

19 KNOWN DEAD IN CALIF. FLOOD

Los Angeles, Jan. 19 (AP)—Flooded southern California began digging out today from its worst deluge in 14 years.

The continuing storm which dumped 7.37 inches of rain on Los Angeles in three days, left 19 known dead and sent damage estimates soaring into the millions.

It was the worst downpour since the disastrous flood of March, 1938, when 11.06 inches of rain fell in five days and caused 65 deaths. It was the worst January downpour since 1916, when 13.30 inches was recorded for the entire month.

The U. S. Weather bureau said that mark may yet be broken, because more rain, although not as much, is forecast for the weekend.

Hardest hit were the lowlands districts in Los Angeles and Orange counties and in the San Fernando Valley. Nearly 1,200 families, evacuated from their homes as floodwaters reached depths of three to four feet, returned to survey and repair the damage.

DAMAGE SUIT FILED

An action in trespass has been instituted by S. William Hollingsworth, Jr., Blue Ridge Summit, against C. C. Rebert, and Francis E. Livelsberger, Hanover, in which Hollingsworth is seeking damages as a result of an auto accident last summer between Hanover and Littlestown. Attorney Daniel E. Teeter filed the trespass action with the county prothonotary for Hollingsworth.

GHS Pulls Another Upset By Handing Trojans 1st Reverse 49-44; Jayvees Also Triumph

Gettysburg high school's basketball team assumed the role of a giant killer again Friday night as it handed the previously undefeated Chambersburg high Trojans their initial scholastic defeat in a thrilling 49-44 South Penn game played here before a large crowd.

To make it a perfect evening for the Warriors the scrubshipped the Chambersburg reserves 33-31 to retain their unbeaten loop mark.

Although the Warrior varsity has been a Jekyll-Hyde performer all season there were few local fans who figured the locals would be able to cope with the highly regarded Trojans and a good percentage of the crowd were followers of the Franklin countians.

After trailing during the opening six minutes the Warriors took the lead and maintained a slight advantage most of the remainder of the way although Chambersburg took short-lived leads three times in the third period and twice early in the final period.

The victory was the first for a Gettysburg team over a Chambersburg quintet since 1948 when a 35-34 victory was registered here.

It was another team victory all the way. John Carter, a surprise starter, gave a particularly impressive performance and Jack Bream came through with an excellent exhibition. Fisel, Skinner, Hixon and Harriel all turned in fine style when the going was rough.

Bob Reid and Thomas turned in nice games for the visitors.

GHS Sports Ahead

Chambersburg started fast on goals by Shank and Corwell before John Carter and Skip Fisel made good on free tosses. Reid landed a long shot and Jack Bream converted two charity tosses. After Reid connected on a foul, Fisel dribbled through for the first Warrior goal after five minutes of play. The Trojans led 11-7 as Gettysburg swept to the lead on a pair of goals by Fisel and a foul by Hixon.

Reid and J. Carter exchanged close shots as the period ended with the Trojans on top 14-13.

The Warriors swept into a good lead in the opening minutes of the second period and midway led 24-15 due to a pair of goals each by Carter and Fisel and two free tosses by Jim Skinner. Chambersburg spurred on goals by Corwell, Reid and Thomas to cut the locals' margin to 26-24 at half time.

Chambersburg forged ahead at 27-26 and 31-28 early in the third stanza but a goal by Bream and foul by Bob Hixon knotted it at 31-31. Butler and Bream landed goals and Skinner hit from outside to give the Warriors a 35-34 lead going into the final period.

Dick Harriel and Reid opened the final period with goals and Skinner looped a foul. Chambersburg went ahead on goals by Reid and Butler at 40-39 for the last time during the game after less than two minutes of play. Hixon converted a foul to tie the count and then followed with a long toss to make it 42-40 after three minutes. Skinner hiked the Warriors' margin to 45-40 on a peep and free throw and then Gettysburg began to stall and as a result drew a total of four fouls, all of which were converted by Fisel, Harriel and two by Bream. The best Chambersburg could do was a long toss by Corwell and a layup by Reid. Several times the Trojans waived foul awards to take the ball out of bounds.

As a result of the upset Chambersburg and Hanover are now tied for the lead in the first half race. Hanover, who comes here Tuesday night, polished off Mechanicsburg 42-35.

Jayvees Win Thriller

Pete Baughman's one-hander with half a minute to go gave Ross Sachs' Jayvees a thrilling victory in the preliminary game. After overcoming a 16-12 deficit at half time, the local lads built up a 31-21 lead midway in the last period but blew the lead, Washabaugh converting a foul to knot the score 31-

Loses License And Fined For Fighting

New York, Jan. 19 (AP)—The next step in the case of the manager who assaulted a referee is in the hands of the grand jury.

And for the third time in less than four months, the boxing world had proof that Bob Chislenberry wields a big stick.

The soft-spoken, but fast moving chairman of the State Athletic commission threw the book at Manager-second Tommy Ryan yesterday when he revoked his licenses for life and fined him $3,000 for his attack on Referee Ray Miller in Madison Square Garden eight days ago. It was the heaviest punishment ever meted out to an individual by the commission.

Ryan, who managed middleweight Rocky Castellani, was punished for punching Referee Ray Miller after the official had stopped the bout between Ernie Durando of Bayonne, N. J., and Castellani in the seventh round. Durando was awarded a technical knockout.

TEN YEARS AGO

Army Soldier Married Today:
George Noel Flynn, First Class with the 51st Medical Battalion at Fort George G. Meade, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Flynn, and Miss Mary Rebecca Swisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Swisher, were married at 8:30 o'clock this morning in St. Francis Xavier's Catholic church. The Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated at the nuptial mass.

Mrs. Thomas Carroll and John Bachensky were the attendants. Miss Mary Ramer presided at the organ and Mrs. Charles J. Myers sang an "Ave Maria."

A wedding breakfast was served at the Blue Parrot tea room to members of the immediate families. Mrs. Flynn is employed at the office of the Glenn L. Bream garage.

Abel-Mummer: Announcement has been made of the marriage in Baltimore on January 17 of Miss Ethel Grace Mummer, North Washington street, and Frank Abel, Carlisle, Ohio. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ernest McCauley in a Lutheran parsonage. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warfield.

Mr. Abel is employed at the Gettysburg furniture factory. The bride taught school for several years in Cumberland township.

Ignore Bombs, Advises Former London A.P. Chief: "The best thing to do when the bombs begin to fall is to go on about your business as usual — carry on — that's how the Londoners won the admiration of all of us."

That was the advice Hugh Wagon, now Philadelphia chief of the Associated Press and former chief of the London bureau, gave members of the Gettysburg Lions and Rotary clubs Monday evening on the basis of 18 months of experience in London during the German air blitzkrieg.

The 34-year-old newsman was presented by Paul L. Roy, editor of the Gettysburg Times.

E. F. Strausbaugh, president of the Rotary club, presided over the meeting. The invocation was given by Dean W. E. Tilberg, Group singing was led by Dr. Frederick Tilberg. Paul Kinsey thanked The Gettysburg Times and Mr. Roy for Mr. Wagon's appearance here.

About 70 clubmen and guests attended.

Mrs. Rose Murren Is First State Woman Chosen Master Farmer: The first Pennsylvania woman ever to be awarded the title of Master Farmer, an honor sparingly conferred upon the best men farmers of the state, received a medal and citation at a luncheon in the ballroom of the Penn-Harris hotel at Harrisburg.

Pennsylvania's first woman Master Farmer is an Adams county, Mrs. Rose Murren, Hanover R. 3, who, since being widowed 20 years ago with a family of nine children, has bought and paid for, managed and made a living from a 140-acre farm in Mt. Pleasant township, and carried off many county honors with her dairy herd, her ton-litter pigs and her prize-winning corn and potatoes.

With her youngest son, Simon, aged 20 years, Mrs. Murren attended the luncheon Wednesday given by the farm magazine, The Pennsylvania Farmer. As the award was conferred upon Mrs. Murren, pictures of her farm were shown on a screen and Adams County Farm Agent M. T. Hartman gave statements of the outstanding features of the Murren farm.

New Secretary For Judge Sheely: Miss Doris Lippy will succeed Mrs. George Dick as secretary to Judge W. C. Sheely. She assumes her duties February 1st. Mrs. Dick resigned her position and will move to Flemington, N. J., where she will join her husband.

L. D. Sheeler Opens Furniture Store: L. D. Sheeler has announced the opening of a new furniture store at the rear of his residence, 449 West Middle street.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

NOTHING VENTURED

Every once in a while I hear someone say: "No one loves me. No one pays any attention to me. I'm a dud!" Well, I would say, why? Whom do you love? Whom do you pay attention to? How far away from yourself do you live? Here's something to think about.

If we do not get after friends, if we do not take something to them, we are not apt to have very many—if any! Be interested in others and they will be interested in you. It's that simple. Many of my choicest friends came about by my admiration and love for them. I have never had any troubles, or problems, that I wanted to trade off. Other people are not interested in them. But you can house a friend tight in your heart by being interested in his troubles, or problems. Most of all, however, a friend wants encouragement and appreciation.

Friends and opportunities, as well as personal happiness, do not just arrive for no reason whatsoever. You invest something to gain each. You invest good-will, courage, cheer, politeness, consideration, and that queen of qualities—kindness. You have to do a great deal of venturing just to get a friend or two! But what a joy it can turn out to be! Coming right down to solid earth, life in itself is one long venture. You can make it just about as thrilling and exciting as you decide. By never doubting and always venturing you will have no time for idleness and complaints. Your eyes will forever be upon the mountain tops and not on the valleys below. With the poet, Longfellow, you will cry: "Excelsior!"

That old adage, "Nothing ventured, nothing gained," is plain enough in its meaning, but there is something that stirs the soul every time you venture into something new and hopeful, something that opens your eyes and gives you the view of a new world. Even though you join Thoreau in his "one world at a time."

It isn't what we win in this life that counts most, but what we strive to win! We can even lose gloriously by being a grand sport about it!

YEAR FOR CHILDREN

From January to December,
Journey long, to youth
appears.
But the grown who can remember
Joys and hurts of by-gone
years
And the countless cares that try us,
Swiftly time goes flying by us.

Children, when it's January,
Fancy Christmas far away
We with memories to carry
Think a year is just a day;
Hours of pleasure, hours of worry
Seem forever in a hurry.

First it's winter; then the springtime.
Through the summer next we race;
Autumn—for the birds the wing
time—
Then the holidays we face
When the children can't remember
Just how far off seemed December.

Harrisburg, Jan. 19 (AP)—A California senator declared here that both major political parties in the United States could "stand a lot of new leadership and new blood."

"Too many people have been so concerned with making a success of their businesses that they fail to assume their responsibilities of citizenship," said Sen. Richard Nixon (R-Calif.). He spoke before the state Potato Growers association Thursday night at the Pennsylvania Farm show.

Turning to world affairs, Nixon asserted that the United States should either drive to win the Korean war or get out of that country.

New York, Jan. 19 (AP)—General Walter Bedell Smith, director of the Central Intelligence agency, said Thursday the Russian people pay black market prices to get hold of an American magazine.

They are "so eager to learn of the outside world," Smith said, that they pay $1.50 a page for copies of the magazine "America" on "the black market."

EXPLAINS ABOUT POSTAL CARDS

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—The man who made postal cards cost more when bought in quantity lots than when purchased singly says critics don't understand the purpose of the plan.

The reason, said Rep. Hagen (R-Minn.) today, is to keep the government from competing with commercial print shops that turn out picture post cards.

Hagen was sponsor of a law that went into effect on January 1. It has come under attack by half a dozen congressmen who have introduced repeal bills.

Under the new law the price of postal cards—the government-printed kind sold at postoffices—went up from one to two cents if bought in lots of less than 50. Over that number there is a 10 per cent surcharge. Thus you can buy 49 cards for two cents apiece, but the bill for 50 is $1.10, making the fiftieth card cost 12 cents.

The rate for mailing a commercial "post card"—the drug store variety bearing a picture of a beach or a pretty girl also rose to two cents, but there is no penalty for quantity mailing.

Hagen maintains that the government is, in effect, "giving paper away" when it sells a stamped, ready-to-mail card for the same price it charges for postage on an open face chromo of Sassafras lake in the moonlight. The result, he told a reporter, is to put the government into competition with the nation's print shops thereby creating unemployment.

East Berlin

East Berlin—Willis Divil, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Divil, near Two Churches, returned to the United States last week after extensive service in Korea.

G. Roland Gordon, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon, Hampton, who recently visited his parents, has returned to his duties at the position in Washington state which he has held since his discharge from the army in the early autumn.

Mrs. Laura E. Rodkey has received word of the death last week of the three-day-old son born to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh R. Morgan, York. Mrs. Morgan is Mrs. Rodkey's granddaughter.

Miss Beulah E. Wentz is recovering from a painful infection of her nose with which she was suffering last week.

Miss Bettie Tierney was among the number of persons who visited the exhibit of printing methods and materials used in printing, on display this week at the Hotel Yorktowne, York.

Miss Nellie Hill has returned to her home on the eastern shore of Maryland after spending several days here transacting business. During her stay, she was entertained one evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Mummert and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis A. Eisenhart recently served a family dinner at their home when eight of their nine children and numerous grandchildren were present. Included was Ross Eisenhart, Washington, D. C.

Some improvement is reported in the condition of Mrs. Daniel E. Brandt.

Plans have been completed for the marriage of Miss Helen Mae King, daughter of Harvey King, R. 1, to Harry B. Nell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nell, Dillsburg R. 1. Miss King is a graduate of the local high school. The prospective bridegroom has operated a meat and grocery market here since the spring of 1948. He recently purchased the former Mrs. Jere B. Lau property at the northern end of town.

Mrs. Lau, 81, who resided there until her health failed last year, remains a guest at the Lutheran home in Baltimore. Her late husband was a minister of that denomination.

Mrs. Melvin C. Eisenhart and family had as a guest during the week her sister, Mrs. George Elsser, York, with whom she resided for a time before her marriage. Mrs. Elsser is a former East Berlin resident, having been Miss Anna Rider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Rider, Gettysburg R. D.

USING HOTBEDS AND COLDFRAMES

Man wages a fierce and constant battle against weather. His dwelling must be constructed to shut out winter cold, and lately he is learning to air-condition it to repel summer heat. He builds roofs to shed the rain and hold back snow and sleet. His automobiles, his passenger trains and airplanes, even his plows and wheelbarrows must be planned and materials for them chosen with the vital factor of inclement weather prominent from the idea to completion and use. And in the realm of food production his struggle against weather and particularly against the brevity of the growing season is often measured as a race to stay ahead of want and famine. In this continuing battle of food, glass has brought to civilization one of the most effective agencies to prolong the plant growing season—to start growth earlier and protract it later in the fall.

In this latitude, according to decades of record-keeping, the last killing frost may be expected around April 30, the first destructive frost of autumn near October 15 to 30. By using hotbeds and coldframes, gardeners may begin active gardening operations in late January and early February and utilize these inexpensive adjuncts to protect certain late crops until early December. In fact, actual food production may be enjoyed every month in the year in this latitude by intelligent use of glass in hotbeds and coldframes.

Seed of early cabbage, broccoli, celery, Brussels sprouts, tomatoes, cauliflower, chard, eggplant, pepper, okra and salady may be sown in window boxes or mild hotbeds from late January until early April, with the harder members, listed first, such as cabbage, celery, broccoli and Brussels sprouts. As soon as the seedlings develop true leaves, they should be pricked out and set in individual pots or bands and thereafter kept thriving in a hotbed or sunny coldframe until soil and weather conditions, in the light of the particular crop's hardiness, permit final transplanting of their growing stems.

Such crops as cucumbers, summer squashes and snap and Lima beans which do not permit transplanting in the ordinary meaning of the term may be started under temporary coldframes in the row where they are to grow and the frames removed after all dangers of frost are past. This method gains as much as six to eight weeks for these tender and non-transplantable crops.

Gardeners who cannot obtain suitable fresh horse manure for hotbed heating may construct permanent, electrically heated beds. Of course, the original costs are higher than those of manure-heated beds but efficiency and long service eventually absorb this outlay and pay extra dividends.

Coldframes are simple to build and effective in operation for all gardeners. Both hotbeds and coldframes are illustrated and instructively discussed in Farmers' Bul-

Church Consistory Selects Officers

The Aid society of Emmanuel church, Hampton, will hold a public roast pork supper in the firemen's hall Saturday, January 26.

The consistory of the church has organized with George Gordon, president; Rev. Alton M. Leiser, vice president; Donald Chronister, secretary; and Byron Nickey, treasurer.

Officers elected by Loyal Sons and Daughters class of Zwingle church, East Berlin are: President, Emory Sell, Jr.; vice president, James Mulligan; secretary, Mrs. Mary Krall; treasurer, Paul Fahs.

Lutheran and Reformed congregations of St. Paul's (Red Run) union church, near East Berlin, will hold an important meeting at the church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

TRUMAN REMARK TAKEN AS SIGN HE'LL RUN AGAIN

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—President Truman's reported remark he has "never quit a fight" was seen by Senator Anderson (D-N.M.) today as a new indication the chief executive will seek another term.

Anderson talked of a "strengthened conviction" Mr. Truman is going to run again even as Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.) entered the March 18 Minnesota presidential primary as a "favorite son" candidate—at the President's request, Humphrey said.

Humphrey insisted he has no White House ambitions, and said the votes of his state's Democratic-Farmer-Labor delegation would be cast for Mr. Truman at the July nominating convention if the President bids for re-election.

If Mr. Truman doesn't bid, Senator Kefauver (D-Tenn.) would make a "very wonderful" presidential nominee for the Democrats, Humphrey said. However, Humphrey said he was going into the Minnesota race with commitments to no one in the event Mr. Truman is not a candidate.

Mr. Truman continued to keep his own counsel about his plans, but Rep. Sieminski (D-N.J.) quoted the President as having told him yesterday: "From precinct captain to president, I have served the people to the best of my ability and I'm a lobbyist for the people. I never quit a fight or ran away from anything."

Sieminski said that was the reply when he told Mr. Truman he hoped he would run again. And when newsmen asked whether Sieminski thought the President would seek re-election, the Congressman said: "If there's a fight and he's asked to join, he'll fight—he'll never quit—that's my opinion."

One trouble with the world is that too many people who ought to be thumbing books are thumbing rides.

Right On The Car
A trend that is certain to be accepted in the next few years is what the trade calls on-the-car servicing. That is, instead of tearing things down, or taking off a unit for dissection on the operating table, the mechanic in charge merely hooks up some special piece of equipment and with his special know-how does a job which may equal or exceed the merits of an off-the-car operation. Perhaps you have already had carbon removed by the rice blasting system wherein rice under pressure is made to clean out carbon deposits without removing the cylinder head. Or you may have had the carburetor cleaned of varnish, gums, fuel dyes and plain dirt by feeding special solvents to the float bowl. Other similar services will be coming along as the idea captures the public's fancy.

Check That Dry Start
You will be hearing a lot about the matter of "dry starting" in the new era of greater motor efficiency ahead, and it may be well to have a little background on the subject.

After an engine has been standing over night, or longer, oil around the pistons has pretty much drained back into the crankcase. Way back in the late '20's I drove a car which was equipped with an anti-stuff valve designed to provide the engine with oil sent directly to the cylinder walls the instant the motor was cranked. This feature was dropped probably because the outlet became clogged with carbon. Then, as today, protection for the cylinder, pistons, rings and valves, can be had by using a top cylinder oiler. In more recent years there have been developed special additives which, put into the oil via the crankcase, help prevent dry starting. Any way you look at it the dry starting problem is well on its way to being licked.

Watch Your Tilt
Having a rear end breakdown is bad enough without getting into clutch trouble, too. No one knows this better than the chap who sent for a tow when a rear axle gave in up the ghost. Everything might have been confined to the original trouble had they remembered not to lift the rear end more than 38 inches from the road. In this highly tilted position lube from the transmission leaked into the clutch housing and made a mess of things there.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:
"Nothing is more annoying in car ownership than having something repaired and then finding that the trouble comes back again. The natural assumption is that either the mechanic didn't do a good job or that he didn't make a proper diagnosis. Actually, however, the trouble's return sometimes is due to a repetition of the sort of thing that brought it on in the first place. Some error in driving or in servicing the car can cause this."

"I refer to troubles with front-end alignment caused by people going over the same rough roads with the same failure to appreciate what the banging does to the front end. I've seen overheating complaints all over again just because owners put too much water into the cooling system. When expansion takes place too much water then is lost out the overflow."

Less Chance Of Skid
While it is true that with automatic transmissions and torque converters a car can be thrown into a power skid if not wisely handled on slippery roads tests have shown that there is less chance of a skid with such equipment should the driver apply the brakes too sharply. Excessive braking power can stall the engine more easily where there is a conventional transmission. The effect of this is to force the engine to serve as an extra, and unwanted, braking force. Where there is a fluid coupling, as with the automatics and torque converters, stalling is less likely to follow over-braking.

May Need Explaining
The organizations that furnish consumers with reports on all manner of modern products will probably be checking into some of the claims for detergent oils. It is true that such oils are now commonly used, that they show up dark because they have the ability to dislodge motor foreign matter, and that in this way they clean modern motors. But it is going to take a lot of argument to convince me that you can use the oil for longer periods because the suspended dirt keeps circulating through the motor harmlessly. It seems to me that it might have an abrasive action. Also how is all this going to be compatible with the oil filter? Will the oil take abrasives from the filter cartridge? Will the oil clear up in time? Or will the oil always keep picking sludge, acquires and gums and carbon from the motor? And will the filter cartridge be capable of handling all this?

Here Are The Facts
In spite of the high cost of everything over 11 per cent of the car owners in the United States have more than one car.

Professional and managerial folk use their cars 63.1 per cent for their work. People engaged in sales, insurance, etc., top this with a 68.9 per cent rating. Clerical workers use their cars only 44.9 per cent for their occupation but 25.7 per cent for shopping.

A friend of mine who recently discovered why breaker points went bad much too quickly in his car now appreciates more than ever before the intimate relationship between the car's various parts and functions. It began to be evident that the points were blackening because of too much oil inside the distributor. He did not oil the cam or rubbing block, and only the normal amount of lubrication of the distributor shaft was provided. Yet actually there was an oil mist within the body of this unit. A more observing mechanic checked the crankcase vents and found them badly clogged. In other words, crankcase vapors were being forced to seek other ways of escape, and the worn distributor shaft was one of them. The vapors carried some oil with them.

One of the leading makers of tire chains is this year including one of the little chain attachers with each pair of its product. The attachers can be bought through regular supply channels, however. With these you can put on chains without using a jack. All the attachers do is to hold one end of the chains in place on the wheel while you move the car ahead and pull the chains around the wheels far enough to hook the other end.

What's On Your Mind?
Q. My car is afflicted with the habit of leaking transmission lube into the rear axle housing. We've tried several remedies and have replaced the universal joints but the lube still runs down the torque tube.
—H. L. F.

A. I suggest that you check for run-out of the front end of the propeller shaft.
Q. How much of an explosive force must a spark plug in today's engine have to withstand?—H. K. L.

A. It runs about 400 pounds per square inch.
Q. I can't seem to keep the generator tight on its mounting. Everything is all right for a day or so, then the generator loosens up. Ever hear of anything like this?
—G. L. Jr.

A. Too much tension of the drive belt will do this.
Q. The engine of my car has a tendency to cut out on a long hard pull. Valve tappets clearances are adequate. The ignition system has been carefully rechecked. Valves do not stick. We have traced the trouble to the fuel pump, but do not seem to be able to decide what could be wrong with the pump. Maybe you know.—N. N. B.

A. Check for a loose valve seat.
Q. My mechanic tells me that because I am driving extensively I should discard the anti-freeze and fill up with a new batch. This is permanent type anti-freeze, and it seems to me that this would be rather extravagant. His point is that a change now would forestall possibility of trouble from excessive acidity of the solution.—J. G.

A. You really are putting on the winter mileage. I think it would be a good idea to follow your mechanic's advice. All coolant becomes acid with use, but the average car doesn't drive sufficiently far in winter to require the double treatment. Many truckers, however, do use two fillings of anti-freeze per winter.

Q. There has been a lot of popping in the carburetor of my car lately. The spark plugs have been considered.—Wm. K. K.

A. Sounds like some water in the gas.
Q. Should spark plugs be cleaned every thousand miles when the car is up for a greasing?—H. L. S.

A. Every 3,000 miles is often enough.
Q. There's a slight flutter of the pointer of a vacuum gauge when the engine is idling. Is this normal?
A. Right.

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 19 (AP)—Jim Bivin has been named manager of the Lancaster Red Roses in the Class B Interstate Baseball league, succeeding Ed Head.

Bivin, whose appointment was announced yesterday by Franco Thompson, director of the Brooklyn Dodgers' farm organization, formerly pitched for the Pittsburgh Pirates and Philadelphia Phils. He has been in the Dodge organization since he signed as player-manager of the Greenwood club in the Cotton State league in 1947. Last season he was manager of Pueblo in the Western league.

Your Contribution to the March of Dimes
Insures a Continuation of Prompt and Adequate Aid Whenever and Wherever Polio Strikes

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

The majority of polio victims are children under ten, and only one-fifth of all reported cases are 15 years of age or older.

Polio epidemics seem to follow a four-to-six-year cycle but there is still no way to predict them accurately. Community preparedness is the best insurance.

ALL PROCEEDS WILL GO TO THE MARCH OF DIMES

FIGHT
INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Infantile paralysis is one of the most expensive diseases known to medical science. A respirator case may require 24-hour nursing care and cost as much as $10,000 a year.

About one-half of those stricken by infantile paralysis recover without crippling; 25 to 30 per cent suffer minor disabilities; 20 to 25 per cent show marked residual paralysis; while five to 10 per cent die.

Dimes and dollars contributed to the annual March of Dimes are divided equally between the National Foundation and its chapters. Chapters retain half the money raised to provide care and treatment for infantile paralysis patients. The other half goes to national headquarters to finance a nation-wide program of research, education and emergency epidemic aid.

Your local community stands ready to serve if polio strikes in this community.

Adequate medical care in the case of infantile paralysis is estimated as beyond the financial resources of nine out of every ten American families. Through the March of Dimes, however, the American people guarantee that no one suffering from this disease need go without the best available care for lack of funds.

To carry on its war against the disease, the National Foundation authorizes an appropriation for research and education. This program includes the training of professional personnel whose skills are required in the fight against infantile paralysis.

The National Foundation is supported solely by the annual March of Dimes held each January.

Littlestown
FIRST REPORT ON MARCH OF DIMES

Mrs. Charles W. Weikert, chairman of the March of Dimes drive in Littlestown, has announced that donations totaling $122.21 have been received thus far. "The response has been both prompt and generous," Mrs. Weikert said. Containers for contributions have been distributed throughout the industries of the community and placed in the local business establishments. Anyone making a contribution of $5 or more will receive a sponsor ticket to the annual county March of Dimes dance. These tickets are now available. Those desiring to have their name appear on the dance program's sponsor list should notify Mrs. Weikert by Monday, January 26. Fifteen sponsors have been received to date.

A large congregation was in attendance at the concluding service of the preaching mission series on Friday evening at St. Paul's Lutheran church. The devotion was in charge of the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ Reformed church, and president of the Littlestown Ministerium, which sponsored the services. The Rev. Mr. Koons read the Scripture lesson; led the responsive reading, and introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. Wallace E. Fisher, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, Gettysburg. The Rev. Mr. Fisher was the speaker for four of the five services. His general sermon theme was "Undergirding Our Spiritual Life." On Friday, he spoke on "The House That God Built."

Ministers' Choir Sings

Special music was offered by the Ministers' choir of the Mercersburg synod of the Evangelical and Reformed church. The choir sang "Now the Day Is Over," "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "We Adore Thee," a capella under the direction of the Rev. J. Alfred Fryer, pastor of Memorial church, York. The members of the choir were: Rev. Dr. Howard Schley Fox, Gettysburg; Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, Littlestown; Rev. Archie C. Rohrbaugh, New Oxford; Rev. Nevin R. Prantz, Arendtsville; Rev. Alton M. Leister, East Berlin; Rev. Merle F. Schlegel, Greenacres; Rev. Ernest M. Hawk, Lemasters; Rev. Franklin F. Glassmeyer, Spring Grove; Rev. Henry K. Haines, Waynesboro; Rev. Albert C. Robinson, York; Rev. Vernon H. Baum, York; Rev. Arthur L. Grove, York; Rev. Arthur E. Leeming, Littlestown R. D.; Rev. Elmer Meissner, East Berlin, and Rev. Joseph H. Miller, Chambersburg.

Prayer was offered by the host pastor, Rev. David S. Kammerer, and the closing remarks were made by him. Mrs. Karl P. Bankert, organist at the host church, served as accompanist for the singing for all of the services. For the Wednesday devotion, the message was brought by the Rev. Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen of the Gettysburg seminary. All of the members of the ministerium participated in the mission services, which are sponsored annually by them.

Ministrel Show Thursday

An old fashioned minstrel show entitled "Littonian Wits" will be presented by the students of the Littlestown high school on Thursday evening, January 24, at 7:30 o'clock, in the school auditorium. Patricia Long will serve as inter-locutor, and provide a lot of fun when she tries to improve the wits of her "endpupils." The endmen are Richard Horner, Terry Brown, Gary Roberts and William Simons. Serving as endwomen will be Suzanne Long, Susan Baumgardner, Nancy Slusser and Barbara Henner. The show will include a variety of stunts and many musical selections. The presentation is under the direction of Mrs. Joan C. Will and Miss Dorothy P. Crabbs, of the faculty.

It was decided to buy a walker for community use at the meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, Fraternal Order of Eagles, on Wednesday evening, following the preaching mission service, at the Eagles home, West King street. The walker will be purchased from the York Hospital Supply company, pending approval from the Grand Aerie. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Mary Ayers, with 18 members in attendance. A contribution of $5 was voted to the March of Dimes campaign. The January guest package was received by Mrs. Helen Ooster.

Committees Named

Final plans were made to hold a public card party on Friday, February 1, beginning at 8 o'clock at the Eagles home. The president appointed the following committees on arrangements for the affair: Refreshments, Mrs. Claire Jacoby, Mrs. Thelma Eyer, Mrs. Marguerite Koontz and Mrs. Dora Breighner; prizes, Mrs. Mildred Sentz, Mrs. Florence Study and Mrs. Mary Hilda Fortney; and advertising, Mrs. Mabel Rittase. The meeting closed with refreshments served to the group by Mrs. Annabelle Ohler and Mrs. Ruth Crouse, comprising the January hostess committee. The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held Tuesday, February 6, 8 p.m., at the Eagles home, with Mrs. Claire Jacoby and Mrs. Mable Rittase serving as hostesses.

A reorganization meeting of the VFW Drum and Bugle Corps to the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954 will be held on Monday evening, 8 o'clock, at the post home, West King street. All present and

FBI GETS 3,457
SLOT MACHINES
IN KENTUCKY

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 19 (AP) — FBI agents and local police, whose earlier raids ripped the heart from the slot machine business in Kentucky, said their target today will be private and public clubs, cafes and roadhouses.

Traveling through the state yesterday with moving vans, the G-men collected 3,457 gambling machines valued at nearly a million dollars. They arrested 32 alleged dealers and distributors on charges of violating the federal law prohibiting the interstate transportation of such devices.

Bonds for those arrested fixed by U.S. commissioners at $500 to $1,000.

In Pennsylvania, scattered federal raids netted 88 slot machines at Scranton and nearby Peckville. Officials valued the machines at $75,000 but said no arrests were made. Another 28 machines were picked up in Pennsylvania's Luzerne county, including 24 in Wilkes-Barre.

Seized At Pier

A tipoff from alert customs officials in New York resulted in the seizure of 50 slot machines about to be loaded aboard the liner Sauronia. FBI agents said they arrested Jack Anthony Harrafa of Brooklyn. He told them the machines, purchased in Chicago, were enroute to a charitable organization at Genoa, Italy.

The machines were spotted by customs officials when handlers dropped one case which split and disclosed its contents.

The drive also extended into Indiana, where two arrests were made, and Ohio, where one arrest was reported.

Some of the slot machines confiscated in Kentucky were of the console variety, valued at $1,000 each.

"In one city," agents said, "we got a machine that pays off in golf balls."

Nearly four million farm tractors are now in use in the United States.

685,000 SAW '52
PA. FARM SHOW;
TO SET RECORD

Harrisburg, Jan. 19 (AP) — Weary state Farm Show officials agreed today the biggest problems of the record-breaking 1952 exposition were food and housing.

Miles Horst, agriculture secretary, told a reporter "we will have to iron out these two problems before next year's show so that more persons can participate and attend."

The show, which closed yesterday after attracting a record 685,000 persons as well as a record number of livestock and commercial exhibits, created housing and food headaches from the opening day.

Hard To Improve

"We had numerous examples of groups of people being delayed in getting food and shelter," Horst said. "Next year we'll have that ironed out and be set for another good show."

On improving the show, Horst remarked "It's going to be hard to top this one. We had some Chicago livestock show officials here and they told us they haven't seen a better grade of livestock anywhere."

"When you have that type of show it's hard to better the quality. But there are some loose ends we will tie together and that will mean a finer educational program," he added.

He was also lavish in his praise of the number of young people who took part in the five-day program.

Steers Sell High

"It is a tribute to the way the youth of Pennsylvania is taking part in agricultural activities," he declared.

Highlight of yesterday's activity was the sale of the grand champion steer of the show for the price of $1,791.40 to Romanor and Steigherwald of New York city. The 1,060-pound Black Angus steer "Commander" won the award under the banner of 19-year-old Ray Buss of East R. 3, Northampton county.

The total paid for the 129 head of baby beef was $62,843. The average price paid per pound was 44.57 cents.

The 1,100-pound reserve grand champion of the show, "Smoky," owned by Roy Snyder, 17, of York R. 1, was sold to E. J. Rehm of Harrisburg for $1,100.

BIG ALUMINUM STRIKE LOOMS

Pittsburgh, Jan. 19 (AP)—A nationwide strike of some 35,000 aluminum workers early in February darkened the industrial scene today as management-CIO-AFL contract talks remained stalemated.

A spokesman for Aluminum Company of America, biggest producer in the industry, said yesterday the AFL Aluminum Workers union has broken off contract negotiations and threatens to strike February 3 unless agreement is reached by then. About 9,500 workers at six plants are involved.

James G. Thimmes, vice president of the CIO-USA Steelworkers, said 11,000 members of his union have no other recourse but to strike February 1 if a new contract is not signed with Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Co.

The CIO-USA issued an ultimatum to ALCOA on Wednesday that 15,000 workers will strike February 1 unless a contract is negotiated.

Thimmes said the USW is making the same demands on Kaiser as on most of the steel industry. Those demands include wage boosts totaling about 18 1/2 cents an hour and improved vacation, holiday and incentive pay benefits.

SAYS U.S. SHOULD "FIGHT TO WIN"

San Francisco, Jan. 19 (AP)—Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) declared today, in an endorsement of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's policies, that the United States has no business fighting in Korea unless it expects to win.

The California senator, a supporter of Gov. Earl Warren's bid for the Republican presidential nomination, brought MacArthur's name before the GOP National committee for the first time in its closing session.

Four candidates for the Republican presidential nomination, including Warren, either have spoken for themselves or have been represented here.

As a possible indication of the general feeling of Republicans toward MacArthur, Knowland declared in a prepared luncheon speech that the five-star general was the principal "stabilizing force against advancing communism in the far Pacific."

Another admirer of the general, former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, told the National committee last night that Eisenhower ought to come out from behind his "khaki curtain" and openly seek the Republican presidential nomination.

Stassen said recently that MacArthur should be restored to his Pacific command, a position which seemed to put him in line with many of the supporters of Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, another avowed presidential candidate. Stassen called MacArthur "a great American."

YANKEE WILL HEAD WESTERN NAVAL POWER

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill leaves Washington today after a series of conferences believed to have brought closer understanding between Britain and the United States on the part each will play in their partnership against Communist aggression.

The aging apostle of British naval prestige withdrew his objections to appointment of an American commander of western sea power in the Atlantic as his final official act here. It was a major concession, even though he reserved the right to propose "modifications" later.

But Churchill apparently gained as much or more than he yielded in his two week visit. For one thing he had the pledge of one million tons of U.S. steel in exchange for British tin and aluminum. And even in the matter of the Atlantic command he won concessions from the United States.

Sails Tuesday Night
The 77-year-old British statesman was to leave the capital this afternoon by train for New York city and a long week-end visit with his old friend Bernard Baruch. Churchill sails for England on the Queen Mary Tuesday night.

Britain will pay a still undetermined sum of American dollars for the steel Churchill asked to speed British defense production.

Churchill told Congress in a speech Wednesday he was asking for no gold from the U.S. but Britain will get 53 million dollars for 20,000 long tons of tin from British Malaya.

And the U.S. will buy 55,000,000 pounds of aluminum from the Canadian supply originally earmarked for England.

The appointment of an American admiral to the North Atlantic Treaty organization (NATO) command was blocked by Churchill before and since he returned to power. U.S. Navy quarters said the logical choice for the ocean going counterpart of Gen. Eisenhower is Adm. Lynde D. McCormick, commander of the Atlantic fleet with headquarters in Norfolk, Va.

Sticks to China
Churchill, in surrendering on the ocean command issue, got U.S. agreement to support an extension of British naval authority to the 100 fathom (600 ft.) depth line. This extends from 30 miles to more than 200 miles into the seas around the British Isles.

British pride was boosted and fears calmed early in the Churchill-Truman talks by an agreement giving Britain a virtual veto over possible use of U.S. air bases in England for launching atomic bomb attacks.

Churchill did not give in to U.S. protests over Britain's recognition of Red China.

The British leader proclaimed for all the world, and the Chinese Communists to hear, however, that a Red breach of a truce in Korea would bring immediate British action. British spokesmen have interpreted this to mean severance of diplomatic relations, as a starter.

WOMAN DOFFS ALL COSMETICS

Miami Beach, Fla., Jan. 19 (AP)—"Lipstick and other cosmetics are symbols of feminine deceit and despair," says pretty, modish Mrs. Andre St. Phalle of New York, wife of the chairman of the board of California Eastern Airlines.

Yesterday she made her first adult public appearance with her own face and is going to continue it, she said.

She told about it at the session of the Assembly of the Americas for Moral Re-armament.

"I have abandoned cosmetics because I do not need them," she said. "I examined myself under the spotlight of MRA standards of absolute honesty and saw cosmetics as a sham, a falsehood and a sign of deceit and despair."

"I like being honest with myself. I like my new appearance. My husband didn't know I was going to abandon makeup until I did it. This morning he told me I looked better than ever. I would like to see more women be honest with themselves and with the world."

Young Couple Found Dead In Their Home

Earlsburg, Jan. 19 (AP)—The bodies of Allen Griest, 34, and his wife, Daisy, 32, were found in their home at nearby Blue Ridge Manor yesterday.

Death of the two persons was "accidental" and was "due to carbon monoxide poisoning," said Dr. S. J. Roberts, Dauphin county coroner.

Roberts said the bodies, found in bed, had been dead for several days. He said the Griests were last seen alive a week ago.

The bodies were discovered by John and Paul De Hart, brothers, who entered the house after neighbors became concerned since the Griests had not been seen for several days.

The coroner said the carbon monoxide (coal gas) apparently had come from a smoldering coal bin in the basement of the house.

EAGLES WILL HOLD BENEFIT
DANCE JAN. 26

It was announced that the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2225, has made contributions for civic and welfare work during 1951 amounting to $1,100 at the weekly meeting of the organization on Thursday evening following the preaching mission service at the Eagles home, West King street. From this amount donations of $800 for the children's annual Christmas party and $70 for Christmas welfare work in the community were excluded. The following contributions were made during the past few weeks: $25 to the Littlestown high school band, for participating in the community Santa Claus parade; $25 for Civil Defense; $25 to the high school band uniform fund; $5 to the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind; $25 to Boys Town, and $25 to the community ambulance fund.

Girl Scouts Meet

The Aerie will sponsor a dance at the Eagles home on Saturday, January 26, for members and their guests and members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Aerie and their guests. The dance will be held from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock for the benefit of the March of Dimes campaign. Admission to the dance will be a contribution to the March of Dimes. Music will be furnished by Ozdie Fagan's orchestra from Frederick.

Md.

The regular meeting of Girl Scout Troop No. 15 was held on Thursday evening with the leader, Mrs. Carroll E. Arter, in charge. The tentative date for a health meal was set for Thursday, February 7. This meal will complete the work for the scouts personal health badges. It was announced that membership registration must be completed by March 1. Mrs. Arter reported that some of the Senior Girl Scouts have expressed their wishes to become hospital aides. Any other Senior Scouts, near the age of 16, who desire to do this work should make it known to their leader. The next meeting of the Troop will be held Thursday.

Girl Scout Troop No. 34 met recently to continue work for the second class scouting badge. Mrs. Carroll E. Arter is the troop leader, assisted by Miss Diane Stambaugh, the troop aide. The troop has been meeting on Monday of each week, but next week the meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon, after school, at the Littlestown at the Littlestown Grade school building.

The quarterly meeting of the Southern Regional Holy Name Union will be held on Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, in the social hall of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary church in Abbotstown.

Study Astronomy

The den mothers of the Littlestown Cub Scouts presented a program on the study of astronomy at the regular meeting on Thursday evening, in the basement of the State bank building. The following phases of astronomy were discussed by the den mothers: Planets, Mrs. John J. Way; comets and meteors, Mrs. Beaven Hanlon; sun, Mrs. E. Paul Bigelow; stars, Mrs. Wilson

Stair, and moon, Mrs. Edwin W. Elder, Jr.

It was announced that a Cub Pack meeting and promotion ceremonies will be held on Thursday, January 31. The scouts' parents are invited to attend. The next meeting of the Cub Scouts will be held on Thursday evening, 7 o'clock, at the bank. Scouts will be excused from this meeting early if they desire to attend a minstrel show to be presented by the local Junior high school students, that evening. The boys are requested to bring their activity books along to the meeting, to be checked by the den mothers for badge work. They are also asked to bring along any articles which they made at the meetings during the past year to be inspected and judged for the community exhibit in keeping with the annual Boy Scout Week observance.

The schedule for the first three services of the present winter series of vespers to begin tomorrow evening is as follows: Sunday, 7:30 p.m., at Christ Reformed church, service in charge of the host pastor, the Rev. G. Howard Koons; guest speaker, the Rev. Morgan Andreas, pastor of Grace Reformed church, Taneytown; Sunday, January 27, at Centenary Methodist church, service in charge of the Rev. Harvey B. Simons, guest speaker, the Rev. John Kammerer, of Boiling Springs; Sunday, February 3, at Redeemer's Reformed church, in charge of the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, speaker to be secured by the Rev. Mr. Koons. This schedule will be followed instead of the one previously announced.

List School Events

Events scheduled for the coming week at the Littlestown Junior-Senior high school include: Tuesday evening, basketball game, Junior varsity boys' team at New Oxford; Wednesday afternoon, regular assembly with a program in keeping with Thrift Week, in charge of Garnet E. Schellhase, of the faculty; Thursday evening, 7:30 o'clock, an original minstrel show entitled "Littontian Wits," to be presented in the school auditorium by the Junior high school students, and Friday evening, basketball game, Junior varsity boys' team, at Newville.

The annual collection of the birthday money will take place at the monthly meeting of the Hustlers' Sunday school class of Redeemer's Reformed church, taught by Theron W. Spangler, on Monday evening, 7:30 o'clock, in the church social hall. The January entertainment and refreshment committee is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Theron W. Spangler, Mrs. Frank E. Reynolds and Mrs. Hamilton C. Walker.

Sgt. Carroll Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reed, Littlestown, P. D., has returned to Albany, Ga., after spending a 15-day furlough at the home of his parents. S/Sgt. and Mrs. Amos E. Furman, Columbia, S. C., are visiting for 15 days at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Fuhrman, Fair avenue, Hanover, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adams, East King street. S/Sgt. Fuhrman was granted a furlough due to the illness of his mother who is now a patient in the Hanover hospital.

COUNTY COUPLE

pink, white and blue carnations. J. Kenneth Barbour, Aspers, brother-in-law of the groom, will be the best man. The ushers will be Charles R. Shealer, cousin of the bride, and Robert C. Cole, both of Gettysburg.

The bride's mother will wear a grey crepe dress, black accessories and her corsage will be composed of pink rosebuds. A black crepe gown will be worn by the groom's mother and her accessories will also be in black. Her corsage will be an arrangement of yellow rosebuds.

To Play Recital
Miss Alice Snyder, church organist, will present a twenty minute organ recital before the ceremony. Traditional wedding marches will be played.

Following the wedding, a reception will be held in the church social rooms, corner of Stratton and East High streets. The bride will cut a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom which will be placed on a table decorated with candles and ivy. Reception hostesses are the Misses Mary Anne George, Nicky George and Jeanne Haehtlein, friends of the bride.

After the reception, the couple will leave for a brief honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in their newly-furnished apartment at 50 York street.

Employed in Harrisburg
Miss Shealer, who was graduated from the Gettysburg high school with the class of 1949, has been employed by the James L. Hafer insurance agency and was employed as a stenographer during the 1949-1951 session of the House of Representatives, Harrisburg. She is presently employed as a secretary in the department of revenue, Harrisburg. The bride is a member of the local chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Mr. McCarthy was graduated from the Biglerville high school with the class of 1946 and is a veteran of World War II. He is presently employed as assistant traffic survey recorder of the planning division of the state highway department, Harrisburg.

Out of town guests will come from York, Wayne, Camp Hill, East Stroudsburg, Waynesboro, West Orange, N. J., and from Washington, D. C.
